Warren Ranch Sponsors Wyoming Women's Antelope Hunt

THE WARREN RANCH

LARAMIE, WY- The Warren Ranch has committed to a gold-level sponsorship for the 2019 Wyoming Women's Antelope Hunt, hosted by the Wyoming Women's Foundation (WYWF). Located near Cheyenne, Wyoming, the long-standing presence of the Warren Ranch is a reminder of Wyoming's cultural roots and continued prosperity as a ranching state.

Susan and Doug Samuelson, owners of the Warren Ranch, have been supporters of the event since the hunt's inception in 2013. The Samuelsons have a deep tie to the state of Wyoming and recognize the impact of the event to affect change for women and girls across the state while still preserving what makes Wyoming unique.

"We care deeply about the people and conservation of the state of Wyoming," Susan Samuelson said, "The Wyoming Women's Foundation shows a commitment to both of these through the Wyoming Women's Antelope Hunt. We are proud that Wyoming hosts such a premier event for women."

This year's hunt will be held Oct. 10-13, 2019 and will bring together more than 40 female hunters from across the nation at the Ranch at Ucross in northeast Wyoming for a weekend of hunting, learning, mentorship and camaraderie, as well as raising funds and awareness for the Wyoming Women's Foundation. Since inception, the hunt has raised more than $345,000 for special projects to help women and girls work toward economic self-sufficiency across Wyoming.

"We are very fortunate to have had incredible support from The Warren Ranch since the hunt began," said Rebekah Smith, WYWF Director. "The Samuelsons share our understanding of how special Wyoming is, and the opportunity WYWF has to invest in its future by investing in women and families."

About the Wyoming Women's Foundation

The Wyoming Women's Foundation is a priority fund of the Wyoming Community Foundation, which granted out over $8 million to nonprofits across the state in 2018. The Women's Foundation builds on a permanent endowment that will ensure funding to enhance the lives of women and girls in Wyoming for generations to come. It makes grants to organizations that help Wyoming women and girls attain economic self-sufficiency, creates statewide awareness of the barriers to economic self-sufficiency, and supports systems change to eliminate those barriers. Since its inception in 1999, the foundation has invested more than $925,000 into over 100 organizations reaching all corners of the state. Learn more at www.wywf.org.
